A multimodal postoperative analgesic protocol successfully reduces opioid administration, both in the hospital and at discharge.

Consistent collection and documentation of Patient Reported Outcomes (PROs) within ERAS programs allow institutions to monitor, understand and compare functional recovery in a patient-centered fashion.

Auditing is an essential component of an ERAS program; reports on ERAS pathways should include detailed information on the relationship between outcomes and compliance with individual ERAS elements.

Read the full article by searching the DOI: 10.1136/ijgc-2019-000356